

English course at Buraimi varsity

MUSCAT — The University of Buraimi held its Summer English Class course graduation recently with more than 230 participants from Buraimi.

The course offered were in different levels of English which was based on the assessment test conducted in June.

Vice-Chancellor Prof Dr Johann Gunther was overwhelmed with the number of participants the University of Buraimi received the course. There is a big demand and interest in Buraimi in learning and developing the English language.

From October, The university will offer evening English class course.

