

News

Prof. Johann Günther is leaving the Fachhochschule 18-09-2006

Prof. Johann Günther has announced that he will resign from his post as executive director to return to his former profession as a teacher and researcher.

Johann Günther has been offered the Jean Monnet Chair and will spend the Winter Term lecturing at a number of European universities.

He has brought a wealth of experience and dedication to his management job. In particular, he has benefited the Fachhochschule with his numerous international contacts. He is now looking forward to taking up a new challenge in the international academic community.

< back to overview